Manchester Jr.- Sr. High School Yearbook

Message to the Class of 2000-

Although I write this letter in February to meet the yearbook staff's deadline, I realize that you will not read it until the trees are once again green in June. I also make these comments in my fourth year as principal. I began my Manchester career at the same time you began your high school years.

I truly hope that although you are leaving MHS and beginning a new phase in your life, you will keep with you many positive thoughts about your high school career. In the four years that I have known you as a class, I have been impressed with your many accomplishments. I also have appreciated sharing the good times and the sad times with you. I trust this book will serve you and the community as a permanent reminder of these achievements and all of your school activities. You should realize that a yearbook is really the only lasting record of what has happened in a school each year. It is also your own personal history book and should be something you will cherish and review for many years to come.

As principal, I hope that the members of the faculty have left lasting and positive impressions upon you and have challenged you as you have matured. I believe the words of Henry Adams, who wrote, "A teacher affects eternity. He or she never knows where his or her influence ends." I also ask you to remember the words I have spoken to you regarding the three types of people in the world: Those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who ask 'What Happened?' I hope that as you begin a new part of your life, you will be a person who always makes things happen.

Read your book with pride, emotion, and fond memories. I look forward to reading it with you at graduation and re-reading it at your reunions.

Sincerely,

Henry Lukas

Henry Lukas
Principal.

In loving memory, the class of 2000 dedicates this yearbook to our friend and classmate Benjamin Carr Grayden.

It's still Sunday morning when I think of you right now/ Our hair is blowing in the breeze, we'd laugh aloud for hours/ Everything is fine...with you. // We'd read the morning paper and read the morning faces/ If I should have one last meal it would be in these places/ Everything is fine...with you. // The coffee does not taste the same anymore/ With no red Mustang to drive up to the door/ The coffee does not taste the same anymore. // I wished upon a star tonight so we can see you shine/ Thinking of your smile makes it brighter all the time/ Everything is fine...with you. // The days that have gone by with you are something we will hold/ Like winning the big game or never getting off the phone/ Everything is fine...with you. // The stars don't shine the same anymore/ I know that you'll never have to frown anymore/ The stars don't shine the same anymore. // I remember the other day you knew just what to say/ You always had an open ear you'd always want to play/ Everything is fine...with you. // You gave out so much love to us, Always a good friend/ We'll think about you always, THIS IS NOT THE END/ Everything is fine...with you .// Let the sun come up again/ We know you're with us Benjamin/ Let the sun come up again. words- B. Downey, K. Delisio, D. Holden.

Tenth Year Reunion, 2010

Ten years down the road, the class of 2000 is set for the reunion of the century. The following excuses from everyone:

Dan Armstrong's car stalled again.
Matt Armstrong was in Portland visiting his girlfriend.
Sarah Cook was posing in the photo booth at the Mall.
Sarah Beaton- well, Sarah Cook wasn't going, so...
Susie Blair- her mom wouldn't let her go.
Cathy Bogeajis was starring in an adult movie.
Doug Berquest was in Tiawana getting new false teeth.
Meg Brideau forgot all about it when her boyfriend called.
Jordan Caress- did somebody say Mr. Pataki??
Aidan Lynch was getting cornrows put in his hair.
Mike Clement was trying to bribe the guards at the Canadian border with his scratch ticket payoff.
Rebecca Deans couldn't deal with it..
Kristine Deedy was still frightening pedestrians everywhere.
Haley Deschamps was chillin' with the Beverly crew.
Caroline Dixon- even though she wrote it in her planner and highlighted it multiple times, she still forgot. Friends tried to call and remind her, but it was after 9:00 and she couldn't talk.
Alex Drake was still "missing" his license.
Carrie Erwin was being followed by children in Sturbridge Village.
Josh Ferguson got arrested for graffiti in Miami; he swears that it's art.
Nick Ferraco was shark bait in the Great Barrier Reef.
Tristan Goodall was still morally opposed to school functions.
Jay Green was at a Red Sox's game when he fell off the stands and broke his other arm.
David Guinane- "I don't know"
Eleanor Halgren was at Northeastern being nursed back to health by Justin, after the animal she tried to save turned on her.
Bryan Hanscom was hunting bison in the snow fields of Northern Alaska.
Marbella Healy was stuck trying to defrost her driveway.
Grace Henderson was watching an X-Files marathon and was drooling over Mulder.
Charlie Herrick was at a "classy café" with Lindsay in Manchester.
Brie Hobbs- her car broke down, really.
Marcy Holland- "reunion or the WB Wednesday night line-up. Let me see..."
Ashley Jones was admiring Brittney Spears' pigtails on TRL.
Cecilia Kiely wrote a bitterly hilarious commentary on high school reunions instead
Pam Kiely finally had her mental breakdown from running the world.
Amber King was shopping with Mel.
Lindsay Klein was coming up with funny words for her book Vocab Is My Life.

Chris Murray had a bunch of excuses— told everybody something different.
Kalee Parker was still scaring children at the haunted house as a "good witch"
Tiana Pastore couldn't make up her mind.
Lisa Petersen was taking care of dogs at her California ranch.
Mia Petersen was in Paris teaching English to French people.
Matt Pinstein was buried in the sand up to his neck and couldn't get out.
Lisa Phillips never even responded
Yvonne Poirier was at the Arlington reunion in her ghetto businesswoman outfit instead.
Aimee Poulos was racing down Highland Ave. with Kathy.
Catherine Rauch couldn't decide what shade of black to wear.
Josh Rauseo was at a Northeastern Creation's meeting.
Abe Rondina was stalking Bob Dylan on his latest world tour.
Laura Rooney was afraid Weenie would be abused.
Mike Shea fell asleep watching a movie at Meg's house.
Mike Shrewsberry was chasing little girls.
Dave Silva was jazzin' it up with Dave.
Jon Smith almost made it but was still listening to music in his car at the top of the hill.
Josh Smith- no one could get a hold of him— his mountain-top cabin in Utah didn't have a phone.
John Stohlmeier was at a punk show with "Bridgey" while selling his new line of Bridget Clothing.
Maura Sullivan- she was mourning the closing of Abercrombie and Fitch.
Elliott Tromkin denies ever attending MHS but was later spotted at the Ham-Wen reunion.
Colin Traynor was "chaperoning" a Jr. High dance.
J.J. Waitt was chasing little girls with Shrews.
Tom Weinburg- someone forgot to send him an invitation.
Brett Wermuth had become a professional massage therapist and couldn't make it.
Craig Wermuth got into a car accident on the way there.
Kurt Wetterlow- the homeless hepetitis guy finally caught him.
Adam Wilczek- he never went to class— why would he go to the reunion?
Alex Wilczek was at the Class of 2003's reunion instead.
Kelly Williamson was in a daydream and crashed her car.

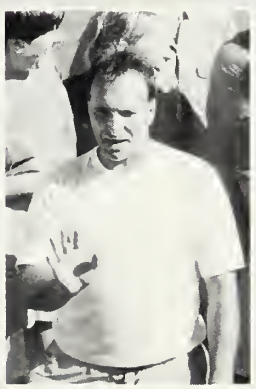
Class Advisors

ad vis er (ad vi zor) 1. one who gives advice 2. Educ a teacher responsible for advising students on academic matters 3. a fortune teller also ad vi sor

Although giving advice does not include leading a "class trip" of 4 kids up Mt. Washington, giving up countless Friday nights to chaperone junior high dances and movie nights, or cleaning hubcaps at car washes, that is what our class advisors do for us. So Ms. Tanner and Mr. Atwater aren't fortune tellers (although Mr. Atwater does have a special connection with the Universe), but they are excellent advisors. Despite the many things going on in their lives that are more important than helping a class raise money, they are always there for us. From the first Rake-a-thon, they decided that the best way to raise money is not to try to get people to buy things they don't want, but to provide services that are not only profitable but add to the community. Working with the class officers, they have helped us be one of the most successful (and original) classes. Not only have they assisted us by planning class activities, they have also influenced almost all of us in other capacities: Mr. Atwater as seventh-grade math teacher, basketball and baseball coach, and Boy Scout leader and Ms. Tanner as eighth-grade English and drama teacher and director. All we can say is thank you. Your support and enthusiasm is appreciated more than you know.

Thank you



"Those that know, do. Those that understand, teach." -Aristotle

ME I AM!

I am the only ME I AM
who qualifies as me;
no ME I AM has been before,
and none will ever be.

No other ME I AM can feel the feelings I've within;
no other ME I AM can fit
precisely in my skin.

There is no other ME I AM
who thinks the thoughts I do;
the world contains one ME I AM,
there is no room for two.

I am the only ME I AM
this earth shall ever see;
that ME I AM I always am
is no one else but ME!

Francis - Here you are on the verge of graduation, and we all want you to know how proud we are of you. You have always had big dreams: "Some people see things and ask 'Why'; I dream of things that never were, and ask 'Why not?'" (Shaw)

Love, Mom, Dad, Joe, Jenny, Emily, Nana and Papa

Doubt can stop you in your tracks
It can drain away desire,
Believing, on the other hand,
Can set your world afire.

When you hold the opinion that
You can reach that special dream,
You have the edge needed to make Achieving much easier than it may seem.

Believing in your ability
Affects the way you act,
And produces an air of confidence
Which influences how others will react.

When you believe you can achieve
And believe it with all your soul,
You possess a powerful asset
You most likely will reach your goal.

Tiana,

Congratulations! We are very proud of you and give our support for your future endeavors.

All our love,
Mom, Dad, & James

The pigtails give her away. Quiet, shy, sitting at the back of the class with her hands folded neatly in her lap. If she weren't so pretty, you might overlook her.

Ah, but those pigtails. Drawn and tight. The perfect complement to intense blue eyes locked onto her next challenge. Life's not easy. You may knock her down, but you'll never knock her out. She'll be back on her feet driving for the goal. This young lady has the heart, the drive and the talent to win her fair share of life's battles. Good luck Ashley. It'll be fun... it'll be wonderful.

Mom and Dad

Beamer, Keep enjoying life and always remeber how much you are loved.

Scooter,

For all you've learned, congratulations!
For all you've taught us, thanks!

Love, Mom, Dad, Meg, Jay,
Auntie, John, Bud, and Stuart

Be like the bird
That, pausing in her flight
Awhile on boughs too slight,
Feels them give way
Beneath her and sings
Knowing that she hath wings

- Victor Hugo

Much love, Kaitlin, from Mom and Jill

Dearest LISA and MIA -

You've both worked so hard, through struggles both usual and unusual, emerging from this part of your life with so many elements of character in place which will make all the difference over a lifetime.

Nothing could make us prouder!

WAY TO GO!
WE LOVE YOU ALWAYS

Mom and Dad

Our horizon is never quite at our elbows;
nor should it ever be.
How much better to dream big, keep our sights high,
and when we reach the top of the hill,
spread our wings and soar higher still.
-Henry David Thoreau

Sarah,
We are so proud of you!
Love, Mom, Dad, David, and Mary

MICHAEL,

We can only hope that you are as proud as we are of who you've become and all you've accomplished. Your dedication, perseverance, loyalty, and integrity are the qualities that will carry you in all you attempt in the future. Continue to set goals, then strive to reach them. Make time for memories, they are what will carry you through the tough or lonely times. Always remember who your biggest fans are and that we'll be there whenever you need us. We wish you continued success and much happiness in all your endeavors.

With All Our Love,
Dad, Mom, Jeff, & Jenn

Dear Matthew,

WOW- Wasn't it just yesterday that we were trying to get you into a good nursery school ?! Where did th time go? Here we are looking at colleges and filling out applications! One day we'll be driving you to college and I'll be crying all the way home. . . You've grown into a young man that anyone would be proud of and we're so very glad to call you our own. You amaze us, teach us, make us laugh, help us, and yes, sometimes drive us crazy. We're so very proud of yo and all your accomplishments. We know you'll do well in whatever you choose to pursue. And please know we're always here for you. . .

Congratulations, Matthew

We love you and are so very proud of you,

Love Mom and Dad

MOON-CATCHIN' NET

I've made me a moon-catchin' net,
And I'm goin' huntin' tonight,
I'll run along swingin' it over my head,
And grab for that big ball of light.

So tomorrow just look at the sky,
And if there's no moon you can bet
I've found what I sought and I finally caught
The moon in my moon-catchin' net.

But if the moon's still shinin' there,
Look close underneath and you'll get
A clear look at me in the sky swingin' free
With a star in my moon-catchin' net.

As you set out for Ithaka
hope the voyage is a long one,
full of adventure, full of discovery.
Laistrygonians and Cyclops,
angry Poseidon—don't be afraid of them:
you'll never find things like that on your way
as long as you keep your thoughts raised high,
as long as a rare excitement
stirs your spirit and your body.
Laistrygonians and Cyclops,
wild Poseidon—you won't encounter them
unless you bring them along inside your soul, unless your soul sets them up in front of you.

Hope the voyage is a long one.
May there be many a summer morning when,
with what pleasure, what joy,
you come into harbors seen for the first time;
may you stop at Phoenician trading stations
to buy fine things,
mother of pearl and coral, amber and ebony, sensual perfume of every kind—as many sensual perfumes as you can;
and may you visit many Egyptian cities to gather stores of knowledge from their scholars.

Keep Ithaka always in your mind.
Arriving there is what you are destined for.
But do not hurry the journey at all.
Better if it lasts for years,
so you are old by the time you reach the island,
wealthy with all you have gained on the way,
not expecting Ithaka to make you rich.

Ithaka gave you the marvelous journey.
Without her you would not have set out.
She has nothing left to give you now.

And if you find her poor, Ithaka won't have fooled you.
Wise as you will have become, so full of experience,
you will have understood by then what these Ithakas mean.

by C. P. Cavafy

The Lion's Share Of Our Work Goes Way Beyond Leaky Faucets

Even though the word "plumber", to most, suggests "leaky faucets" and "emergencies", here at DAVID R. SINGLETON PLUMBING & HEATING INC., we do so much more.

Our goal since 1934 has been to leverage our expertise in the plumbing and heating field against the backdrop of a much wider canvas. In short, we have taken our hands-on skills and broadened them to include a commitment to:

- Conservation — We can reduce the cost of your water bill by installing an extra water meter.
- Efficiency — By installing only the best designed and most cost efficient boilers on the market (such as the Viessmann line), we can save you money on your heating bills.
- Safety — We will evaluate and make recommendations for your home to be risk-free of carbon monoxide poisoning.
- Aesthetics — We offer an extensive line of innovative products, such as in-floor radiant heating systems, designed to enhance your home's comfort levels.

If you're interested in speaking further about any of these ideas, please call us at (978) 526-1642.

And remember,-
we've got so much more to talk to you about than leaky faucets and pipes.

To Maura

Words of wisdom from Eleanor Roosevelt:

Friends, you and me....You brought another friend, then there were 3. We started a group, our circle of friends, and like that circle, there is no beginning or end.

To handle yourself, use your head; to handle others, use your heart.

If someone betrays you once, it is his fault; if he betrays you twice, it is your fault.

Great minds discuss ideas, average minds discuss events, small minds discuss people.

Beautiful young people are accidents of nature; beautiful old people are works of art.

Learn from the mistakes of others, you can't live long enough to make them all yourself.

Many people will walk in and out of your life, but only true friends will leave footprints in your heart.

Yesterday is history. Tomorrow is mystery. Today is a gift.

Enjoy today, Maura. From three of your best friends; Dad, Mom and Jill

Kalee,
It's been a long, hard road, but you did it. Congratulations!
Love Mom, Dad, Evan, Shaun

Aimee Jean our Beauty Queen,
You have brought us such joy and happy memories. Now you are a year 200 graduate and we are all so proud of you. we wish you only the BEST in your future plans. Remember we are always here if you need us. We love you

Dad, Mom, Steve, and Carolyn

The Girl Next Door
(aka Meghann Brideau)

Do you remember
Many years ago
When we were young
How we used to play together
Every day?

It seems like yesterday
The childhood world
Of clowns and cotton candy
And the summer days
That never seemed to end
When we played hide 'n' seek
From four o'clock 'till dusk
Then sat outside on someone's stoop
And listened to the crickets
And slapped away mosquitoes
And talked about out dreams
And what we'd do when we grew up...

Won't you come out and play, once more?
For we still are so young...

Amamda Dykstra, age 14
(from Chicken Soup for The Teen Age Soul)

With love from the Browne

Brianna

We a re very proud of your accomplishments and the direction you have chosen. We know they have not come easy. Wishing you all the best that life has to offer. Always remember it's the journey, not the destination, that matters most.

Love Mom, Dad, Mike, Rissa, and Colby

Laura,

You have grown up into a wonderful young woman who works hard, has high standards, and a unique sense of humor. Enjoy your new adventures in college. Love life.

editor's note

Please take a second to observe the clip art available to the yearbook staff here before you:

Keep household chemicals out of our rivers and streams.

I'm sorry for putting you through such a traumatizing experience, but just in case you hated the yearbook, now you know how much worse it could have been... Thank you to all of the yearbook staff for never letting me use excessive clip art, borders, and only a few offensive backgrounds-- you know who you are. Thank you to everyone on the yearbook staff for putting up with lack of photos, for doing your pages, for not getting mad at me when I never scheduled that meeting to teach you Pagemaker, for being creative, for giving your study halls, before school time, and afternoons to the yearbook, and for making this book possible. Oh, and thank you for always dealing with my insanity and forgetting to remind you of deadlines until the week before (sorry, it's the procrastinator in me). Miss Petelle (yearbook advisor), thank you for your patience (with me and the computers...), your encouragement, your chocolate, your odd hours editing pages, and your ability to keep the yearbook on track. There is obviously no way this book could have been made without you. To our publisher Tom Keeley, thank you for your help and explanations. Thanks also to the administration, teachers, and janitors that let the yearbook staff stay late or come into the computer room at odd hours. To the class, I hope you like this book. Thanks for your great ideas on 10th reunion, all the candids, and for reading this far.

Even when you misplace this yearbook moving from one appartment to another, remember this year: our friends, our loss, our love, our victories, our sudden surge of school spirit, and of course all of our memories of all the little moments that made high school the time that it was. (ok, enough of the sappy stuff.)

Love,
Caroline
Yearbook Editor

(Come on, the feet aren't that bad)

Thanks, Caroline

"I absolutely cannot imagine doing this yearbook without you! I can't begin to tell you how incredible it has been getting to know you. Your creativity and personality can be seen on every page of this yearbook. Whether it be on the Senior Feet Page or on all of Alden's pages (sorry, Alden!!), you not only picked up the slack, but made this book incredibly special! Thank you, thank you, thank you!!"

-Miss Petelle

P.S. Tom Keeley is helping me set up a satellite link-up so you can still be editor next year, is that okay with you?!

"Sorry that you had to deal with the stress of this yearbook--but look at the quality job you did!! Without your effort, we obviously would have been lost. Thanks for everything Caroline!"

-Pam

" Without all of your hard work and long hours spent, this yearbook would not be as wonderful as it is. There is no way I could have ever survived my stressful moments without you and all of your answers. Thanks for making our senior memories last forever."

-Susie

"I know we sometimes had our artistic differences (superlatrives?), but you know I think you did a great job as editor. Thanks for taking on one more extracurricular so we could actually have a yearbook. Oh yeah, remember how I was so adamantly against the use of clip art? I changed my mind when I saw this fish and remebered the large role that fish played in my high school career. This random, meaningless clip art image is dedicated to you, Caroline."
